

Speak About It can help your campus comply with Campus SaVE Act education requirements.
Here's how:

Under the 2013 Campus SaVE Act, colleges and universities must provide educational programs which include...*	Speak About It offers...
primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students.	a 60-minute performance focusing on healthy relationships, consent, and boundaries designed to fit within orientation week programming.
safe and positive options for bystander intervention.	humorous, relatable, and thoughtful skits designed to provide students with practical strategies for being active bystanders in social settings.
information on risk reduction to recognize warning signs of abusive behavior.	a variety of monologues sharing real-life experiences with diverse relationships, both healthy and unhealthy.
ongoing prevention and awareness programs for students and faculty.	facilitations that reinforce teaching points from the performance and provide useful techniques and resources for students to continue sexual assault prevention efforts throughout the year.

Want to learn more?

Web: www.speakaboutitonline.com

 www.facebook.com/speakaboutit

  @wespeakaboutit

For booking inquiries and other questions, contact Shana Natelson, Executive Director, at speakaboutitonline@gmail.com.

*Campus SaVE Act educational requirements obtained from clerycenter.org